Dear RP family,

With the aim of reinforcing our Corporate Culture and maintaining our processes with the highest standard of professionalism, I invite you all to read, learn and live our Quality Policy:

We are a global, family-owned company dedicated to the manufacture, installation, and servicing of pumping systems with a focus on operational excellence, ensuring exceptional products and services that meet or surpass our customers' requirements, market expectations, and meet industry regulations.

Your compliance with this Policy will keep our operations focused on our vision: Become the supplier of choice.

Thank you!

Fernando A. Elizondo Garza.

CEO
